The Washington Wild Things are a semi-professional minor league baseball team, celebrating their 16th season in the Frontier League.

For driving directions or more information about the team, visit www.washingtonwildthings.com.

Parking will be available in the main lot of the stadium.

Parking vouchers, game tickets and meal wristbands will be issued on event day upon check-in.

Plan on arriving early and catch one of the optional stadium tours, enjoy ballpark food & beverage up until the game starts, and enjoy the game from the comfort of your own stadium seat or our private picnic pavilion patio deck.

Admission details will be provided in advance to registered guests mid-August. We hope you can join us!
